

Suzanne doesn't do rush-hour traffic

She does, however, yield for ducks

Get out of the rush and go with the flow!

Enter the James River Park and suddenly you are surrounded by nature in the middle of the city. From a leisurely stroll along lush trails to the exhilaration of riding the rapids, this unique park will connect you with nature and wash away your stress.

It's nature to soothe your soul!

Twice voted "Best Urban Park" in the Southeast, this system of parks offers swimming, sunning, boating, fishing, hiking, biking, rock climbing, relaxing, class IV rapids and mountain bike trails.

Go to www.RichmondGov.com/parks to find a park, recreation program or community center near you.

It Starts in Parks

City of Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Facilities

